Any such agreement must be approved by the Compliance Committee, in consultation with Trican Legal Departments, before the Company can execute same:

- i. A precise definition of the scope of the Agent's duties, the territory in which the services will be performed, and the compensation of the Agent. The pre-approval of the Compliance Committee is required if the contract with the Agent contemplates compensation that includes a bonus or success fee component.
- ii. An acknowledgement by the Agent that the Agent understands the provisions of applicable local laws pertaining to anti-bribery and anti-corruption and that the Agent will comply with such laws in carrying out obligations under the contract on behalf of the Company. If appropriate, provisions shall be added to ensure that the Agent understands Trican's obligations under Canadian laws and other applicable anti-corruption laws. In addition, the Agent will commit to conduct its services on behalf of Trican in full compliance with such Canadian and other applicable anti-corruption laws and any applicable Trican policies.

- v. Assignment of the entire agreement or any rights, duties, or obligations under the agreement by the Agent is prohibited without the Company's prior written consent.
- vi. Payment shall be by cheque made out in the Agent's name or by wire transfer to a bank account that is registered in the name of the Agent and located in the country in which the Agent performed the services unless there is an acceptable explanation for other arrangements.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, such payment shall be made in the local currency where the Agent is performing the services.
