Developed by leading pressure pumper, Trican Well Service, the FracNet™ system has been used to monitor over 40,000 fracturing treatments. In the process, FracNet has reduced the costs associated with training and software NPT by 98%.

FracNet makes it easy to stay in touch as the job progresses. Once the job is complete, your data will remain interactive and accessible to you and your customers.

FUNCTIONS AND FEATURES

- Searchable job database
- Secure control and access
- Watch multiple jobs or screens
- Real-time chat
- Customizable displays with statistics and annotations
- Stage separation and summaries
- Real-time representative wellbore diagram
- Export plots, templates and reports
- Server for analysis applications
- Optimized for low bandwidth connections